8. The Office of Personnel reports that a total of 59 former Federal Protection Officers have applied for the Security Protective Officer (SPO) program. Forty have completed their medical/polygraph. The Office of Security recently addressed 265 prospective SPO applicants in two presentations in Maryland.

9. A pilot course on managers' responsibilities in avoiding or correcting discrimination complaints sponsored by the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), was well received by the 40 employees attending it.

10. Rick Walker, a former Redskins player and current member of the NBC sportscasting team, has accepted an invitation to be the guest speaker for the Agency's Combined Federal Campaign kick-off rally on 2 October.

11. The Office of Training and Education (OTE) reports that the Agency is sponsoring 48 employees for full-time academic training, the largest number ever for a single semester. The total includes 1 from the DCI area, 13 from the Directorate of Administration, 22 from the Directorate of Intelligence, 10 from the Directorate of Science and Technology and 2 from the Directorate of Operations. Enrollments for the Agency off-campus program also are larger than in past years. Three hundred and twelve students will be participating in 22 courses. OTE is planning to expand the program.
